When Rebbetzin Chaya Mushka was born, her grandfather, the fifth Lubavitcher rebbe, Rabbi Shalom DovBer who was abroad, telegraphed her father the following, "... Mazal tov on the birth of your daughter... if she has not yet been named, she should be called Chaya Mushka (the name of the wife of the Tzemach Tzedek)"

one time someone came over to the Rebbetzin's home . They were having a meal. When someone poured himself a cup he spilled and made a big stain on the white table cloth so the Rebbetzin didn't want to embarrass the person so she said " this is a simon brocho" so she doesn't embarrass him she said it with much simcha that everyone else wanted to spill there cup too!

I KNOW THAT EVERYTHING THAT THE REBBES AND REBBETZINS DO IS A LESSON FOR US. THE LESSON FOR ME IS THAT WE MUST BE CAREFUL IN HOW WE SPEAK SO WE DON'T SAY SOMETHING NOT NICE OR EMBARRASS ANYONE.

I learned from the Rebbetzin that it is very important to be tznius and not to try to be famous and get kovod.

A Mysterious Lady

One day the Rebbetzin went out for a ride with her driver. The usual route that they would take was blocked because of construction and so they had to make a detour causing her to go through an area that she normally would not pass. During the detour she passed a house that had a police car, and a moving truck parked in front. There were several workers removing the furniture and loading them on to the truck. The Rebbetzin heard a lady crying next to the truck so she asked the driver to see what the commotion was about. Upon returning to the car the driver told the Rebbetzin that a family that had recently moved from Russia had been living in this house and they were being evicted because they hadn't been able to pay the rent for some time. The Rebbetzin asked the driver to find out how much money the people owed, and they were being evicted because they hadn't been able to pay the rent for some time. The Rebbetzin asked the driver to find out how much money the people owed. She then removed her check book and wrote a check for the full sum instructing, then the driver went to give it to the owner of the house who was also present. After leaving from the scene the Rebbetzin explained to her driver that her father had taught her that everything one sees is for a purpose and if the Hashgacho protis made them come down this block today and see this scene there was a reason for it.

I am VERY privileged to have the same name as the rebbetzin. A tznius and refined woman, with only good middos! Just like I copied her name, I hope to be able to copy the Rebbetzins scale of good middos! Written by: Mushky Rosenblum, age 8

Dear Rebbetzin Chaya Mushka,

I want to tell you how much you taught me, my friends and my family. You are a princess and Eishes Chayil. You were the one to encourage the Rebbe to become the nasi. You are so powerful and influential and yet remain concealed and humble. You are such a refined and tznius women. You walked around like a true princess. Rebbetzin chaya Mushka I know how much you wanted to bring Moshiach and how much we children ment to you. We were your children. Although sometimes it might be hard I will always try my best to follow in your footsteps and whatever you do and remain a princess the way I dress just like you!
